Projekta ietvaros sagatavo dažādas informatīvās publikācijas par Eurostat produktiem un pakalpojumiem

Palīdz patstāvīgi izmantot internetā bez maksas pieejamos Eurostat statistiskās informācijas resursus

Atbild 24 stundu laikā

Uztur Atbalsta centra mājas lapu

Piedalās izstādē "Skola", Eiropas dienā

Darbojas gandrīz katrā ES valstī

Lai saņemtu līdzekļus, jāraksta projekts, kuru pieņem uz 4 gadiem

Atbild uz jautājumiem par:

- datu/ publikāciju pieejamību
- datu pareizību
- metodoloģiju
- tehniskām problēmām
- ...

Latvijā darbojas no 2004. gada, saņemot līdzekļus no Eurostat

Atbildi sagatavojot, konsultējas attiecīgajās CSP daļās. Ja vajadzīgs, prasa palīdzību Eurostat Atbalsta centram

Short Description for [teilm020] - Harmonised unemployment r...

Short Description: The unemployment rate represents unemployed persons as a percentage of the labour force based on International Labour Office (ILO) definition. The labour force is the total number of people employed and unemployed. Unemployed persons comprise persons aged 15 to 74 who: - are without work during the reference week; - are available to start work within the next two weeks; - and have been actively seeking work in the past four weeks or had already found a job to start within the next three months. Data are presented in seasonally adjusted form.

Introduction

Inflation

The HICPs are economic indicators constructed to measure the changes over time in the prices of consumer goods and services acquired by households. The HICPs give comparable measures of inflation in the euro-zone, the EU, the European Economic Area and for other countries including accession and candidate countries. They are calculated according to a harmonised approach and a single set of definitions. They provide the official measure of consumer price inflation in the euro-zone for the purposes of monetary policy in the euro area and assessing inflation convergence as required under the Maastricht criteria.

HICP data, including backdata, is revisable under the terms set in Commission Regulation (EC) No 1921/2001. When updated (see release calendar), the database overwrites existing data with the revised data and those changes will only be flagged for a short period, generally until the next update.

If you are dealing with indexation you should bear in mind that HICP can be revised at any point in time. Revisions may also affect backdata. To trace revisions, please refer to the monthly HICP publication 'Data in Focus' (pdf).

Ziņas par publikāciju

The EU in the world 2013
A statistical portrait

This publication provides a statistical portrait of the European Union (EU) in relation to the rest of the world. It presents a broad range of indicators for the EU and the G20 countries from the rest of the world. It treats the following areas: economy and finance; population; health; education and training; the labour market; living conditions and social protection; industry, trade and services, tourism and the information society; agriculture, forestry and fisheries; international trade; transport; the environment; energy; and science and technology. The publication, which complements information found in Europe in figures – Eurostat yearbook and in the Eurostat regional yearbook, may be viewed as an introduction to European and international statistics. It provides a starting point for those who wish to explore the wide range of data that are freely available from a variety of international organisations and on Eurostat's website at <http://ec.europa.eu/eurostat>

 Dataset title: Harmonised unemployment rate by gender - total
 Description: The unemployment rate represents unemployed persons as a percentage of the labour force based on International Labour Office (ILO) definition. The labour force is the total number of people employed and unemployed. Unemployed persons comprise persons aged 15 to 74 who: - are without work during the reference week; - are available to start work within the next two weeks; - and have been actively seeking work in the past four weeks or had already found a job to start within the next three months. Data are presented in seasonally adjusted form.
