

International conference
Digital Approaches in Cultural Heritage:
Towards a Pan-Baltic Cooperation Network

Programme

21 May 2019	Tuesday
8.30-9.30	Registration
9.30-9.50	Opening ceremony
9.50-10.20	Dr.hist. Jānis Krēsliņš, Senior Academic Librarian for Research Affairs at National Library of Sweden ‘Technoculture and Messianic Faith: Revisiting Cultural Heritage in the Baltic Sea Region’
10.20-10.50	Kristiina Hormia-Poutanen, Director of National Library Network Services at National Library of Finland, Special adviser at LIBER ‘European and National Level Policies Supporting the Digital Shift in Cultural Heritage’
10.50-11.10	Coffee break
11.10-11.40	Prof. Wojciech Falkowski, Director of the Royal Castle in Warsaw – Museum ‘Heritage and Memory. Double Challenge and Double Duty’
11.40-11.55	Eva-Maria Artus, Head of Long Term Preservation Department, National Library of Estonia ‘Preservation of the recent cultural heritage, including born-digital’
11.55-12.10	Jolanta Budriūnienė, Director of Documentary Heritage Research Department, Martynas Mažvydas National Library of Lithuania ‘Use of cultural heritage materials for regional identity building’
12.10-12.25	Robert Zepf, Director of Rostock University Library ‘Use of cultural heritage materials in research across borders’
12.25-12.40	Jerker Rydén, Senior Legal Adviser, National Library of Sweden ‘Cross-border accessibility of cultural heritage in digital environment’
12.40-14.00	Lunch break
14.00-14.30	Lotte Wilms, Digital Scholarship advisor at the KB Research Lab of National Library of the Netherlands ‘The added value of library labs for cultural heritage: the example of the KB Lab’

14.30-15.00	Christophe Didier , Delegate for Scientific Policy and International Relations, The National and University Library, Strasbourg ‘Libraries as heritage providers: when (and how) documentation becomes research material’
15.00-15.20	Coffee break
15.20-17.45	Short presentations and discussion of the Baltic Sea Region policy makers: Estonia – Ms. Ülle Talihärm , Adviser of Libraries, Ministry of Culture Finland – Ms. Minna Karvonen , Director, Department for Art and Cultural Policy, Ministry of Education and Culture Iceland – Mr. Rúnar Leifsson , Senior-Advisor, Ministry of Education, Science and Culture Latvia – Mr. Uldis Zariņš , Deputy State Secretary for Cultural Policy, Ministry of Culture Lithuania – Ms. Gintautė Žemaitytė , Vice-minister of Culture Sweden – Ms. Eva Stengård , Deputy Director, Ministry of Culture Moderator – Dr. Gustavs Strenga , Post-doctoral Fellow at Tallinn University and Senior Researcher at the National Library of Latvia
18.00-20.00	Conference reception

22 May 2019	Wednesday
9.00-9.10	Arrival
9.10-9.40	Jussi-Pekka Hakkarainen , Information Specialist, National Library of Finland ‘Taming of the In-Copyright Content: Research Libraries as Advocates of Copyright Act in Open Science’
9.40-10.10	Anda Baklāne , Head of Digital Research Services, National Library of Latvia ‘Does every researcher want something different? A case for new core services in the ALM sector’
10.10-10.30	Coffee break
10.30-12.00	Parallel open discussions on – Preservation of the recent cultural heritage, including born-digital – Use of cultural heritage materials for regional identity building – Use of cultural heritage materials in research across borders – Cross-border accessibility of cultural heritage in digital environment
12.00-13.00	Presentation of results and conference closing
13.00-14.00	Coffee and snacks