Address by Mr. Žanis Šmits, Festival Chairman

GOD BLESS LATVIA

Welcome by Mr. Tālvāldis Kronbergs, President,
Latvian National Federation in Canada

The Honourable Otto Jelinek, M.P.

Minister of State, Fitness and Amateur Sport and Multiculturalism

Mixed choir and symphony orchestra:

- Jāzeps Vītols (1863-1948) BARD OF BEVERINA (Auseklis)

The venerated bard of Beverina awakens the spirit of the people with the power of his song, bringing the nation victory over besieging armies.

Conductor: Arvīds Purvs

Mixed choir:

Valdemārs Ozoliņš (1897-1973)..... BELOVED LATVIA (J. Sanders)

Beautiful Latvia, our cherished homeland, we pledge to you our strength and our lives.

Conductor: Ernests Brusubārdis III

Jānis Norvilis (1906-)..... FROM THIS LAND (Author unknown)

A child's dreams of shaping his homeland are shattered by its loss but the longing of the exiles will one day realize the dream.

Emīls Dārziņš (1875-1910)..... UPROOTED PINES (J. Rainis)

A hostile force has destroyed the proud pines but they maintain their strength and emerge from despair in a different form to await a new dawn.

Conductor: Vizma Maksīņa

Jēkabs Graubiņš (1886-1961)..... ORPHAN'S LAMENT (Folk song)

The orphan yearns for his mother but cannot summon her. although the sun can warm the child, it has no word of comfort to offer.

soloist: Ileāna Pētersone

Ruta Brože (1953-)..... THREE TREES IN THE PINWOOD (Folk song)

Of three pines of equal stature only one remains when the second is cut and the third breaks in a storm. Of three beautiful daughters only one remains at home when the other two are married.

Conductor: Viktors Bendrupis

Women's choir:

Jānis Kalniņš (1904-)..... SING WE ALL TOGETHER (Folk song)

If the singing of the bride's well-wishers is harmonious and their advice is good, then her married life will be happy.

Conductor: Ernests Brusubārdis III

Jānis Norvilis (1906-)..... AWAITING EVENTIDE (Folk song)

A serf despairs of day's end bringing with it rest from the hard labour set by his merciless master.

Conductor: Arvīds Purvs

Mixed choir:

Arvīds Purvs (1926-)..... THE CAREFREE LIFE (Folk Song)

In this allegorical song a young soldier reminisces the good life he had on his father's lands.

Conductor: Arvīds Purvs

Imants Mežaraups (1958-)..... A CHILD'S DEVOTION (Folk song)

A devoted child recalls the love and tenderness his mother bestowed on him at the cradle and awaiting his home-coming.

Conductor: Vizma Maksīņa

Male choir:

Helmers Pavasars (1903-)..... I BRIDLED A FERRET (Folk song)

In this humorous song, a young man on his way to seek a wife, boasts that horsemen are willing to trade their steeds for his ferret.

Conductor: Vizma Maksīņa

Emīls Dārziņš (1875-1910)..... AS THE STARLIGHT (K. Jēkabsons)

A young man asks his beloved to reflect the light of the stars and the moon, to shine like the rising sun, to be as bright as the new-fallen snow and then to accompany him on a pilgrimage to find the beauty of his homeland.

Conductor: Ernests Brusubārdis III

Mixed choir:

Imants Sakss (1918-)..... SUNSET ON STABURAGS (I. Kalnāre)

In this lyrical song, the glorious sunset on the cliff inspires a boatman to seek an anchorage for his boat. A maiden from Courland aids him and he asks her to be his bride.

Conductor: Ernests Brusubārdis III

Jānis Čirulis (1897-1962)..... ILLUSIONS (K. Skalbe)

In search of enlightenment the poet wanders through blue-green forests finding only disillusionment.

Jāzeps Vītols (1863-1948)..... CASTLE OF LIGHT (Auseklis)

This song tells of a mythical castle of light which prospered in freedom. Then came war and slavery. The castle disappeared until a new generation would discover the secret of light and liberty.

Conductor: Viktors Bendrupis

Intermission

Presentation of awards

Mixed choir:

Andrejs Jurjāns 1856-1922 THE FALCON AND THE LINDEN TREE (Folk song)

A falcon discovers that the branches of his favourite linden tree have been broken off by young lovers and flung into the River Daugava.

Conductor: Viktors Bendrupis

Emīls Melngailis (1874-1954)..... NIGHT IN THE MEADOW (Folk song)

A young man puts his steed into the pasture for the night asking God to keep his horse safe. He loses his horse in a heavy mist but recovers him in the morning.

Dace Štauvere-Aperāne (1953-) THE FLOWERING GRAINFIELD (Folk song)

With the coming of summer, a maiden's brothers have time to build a granary, but she asks them to build her a room with three doors, one for the rising sun, one for the setting sun and one to lead her to her life's path.

Conductor: Vizma Maksīņa

Emīls Melngailis (1874-1954)..... DAWN (Folk song)

A young swain rides out at sunrise to seek his bride. He passes through three gardens, to find his beloved in the third one.

Conductor: Ernests Brusubārdis III

Bruno Skulte (1905-1976)..... Cantata SHIELD OF SONG (J. Veselis and A. Eglītis)

The unifying spirit of song, exalting the beauty of Latvia serves as a mighty shield against evil and gives courage to the nation.

Soloist: Pauls Berkolds

Andrejs Jurjāns (1856-1922)..... FOR MY HOMELAND (A. Jurjāns)

We raise up our voices in supplication to God to protect the land of our forefathers from iniquity and to grant freedom and prosperity

Soloist: Ileāna Pētersone

Conductor: Arvīds Purvs
